DEPUTY INTERNAL REVENUE COLLECTOR GOT A FEW BUMPS.

Montgomery, Ala., Feb. 23.—It was reported Wednesday that the matter of the assignment of Ad Wimbs, a negro deputy internal revenue collector, to Montgomery, has been brought to the notice of Federal Judge Thomas G. Jones of this city, and has also been carried to Revenue Agent Surber, of Atlanta. It appears that a number of federal officials are displeased with the station of the negro in this city and their displeasure has been intensified by the reports that he on one or two occasions made himself disagreeable to the white persons with whom he dealt.

It is shown that Wimbs has shown up at three soft drink stands in Montgomery where he demanded, with official authority, to see the revenue licenses held by the proprietors. He has been at Tom Harrison's place, corner of Montgomery and Lee streets; he has visited the home of Sam Strauss, corner of Dexter avenue and North Lawrence street, and he has paid his respects to Frank Wilson.

J. A. Jessel, who is employed by Sam Strauss, states that Wimbs called at Strauss' place last week.

"He came here early in the morning," said Mr. Jessel, "showed me his credentials and asked to see my revenue license. I showed it to him. About 3 o'clock the same afternoon he came in again and asked to see the same license. I told him that I had already shown it to him and said that I hadn't done so. I finally made him get out. He looked to me to be drunk," added Mr. Jessel.

At Frank Wilson's place he is reported also to have called, and an incident is said to have occurred when the negro asked to be shown the revenue license.

In federal circles Wednesday it was rumored that there might be an investigation, but what truth there was in the report could not be learned.

Wimbs is a negro politician executive committee. He comes from Greensboro and was recently appointed as a deputy revenue collector by Collector J. O. Thompson of Birmingham. His appointment is temporary pending his qualification under the civil service rules.

Wimbs, it appears, was assigned to Montgomery as his headquarters to work in thirteen counties surrounding this city.

The curtain will rise promptly at 8:30 tonight with good music by Round's Ladies Orchestra and All-Star Specialty Company. Everybody Come.

COAST LINE ENGINE

BREAKS DOWN

An engine on the Coast Line road suffered a break down last night and train 58, due to arrive here at 10:40 did not arrive in the city until about 5 o'clock this morning.

A pipe burst and caused the break down and another engine was sent out from Montgomery to bring the train to Dothan and on down the run.

ROUNDS ORCHESTRA TONIGHT.

The Rounds Orchestra at the Elite theatre tonight will be one of the finest treats ever offered Dothan. Those who have been fortunate enough to attend a performance given by these people speak only in the highest praise of its merits, and term it a high class attraction such as never comes to a city this small.

The Rounds Orchestra is in a class by itself and has pleased audiences in every large city in the United States.

It will be presented tonight at the Elite theatre under the auspices of Class 35 of the Foster Street Methodist Sunday School and should be witnessed by all Dothan.

GENEVA COURT HOUSE BURNED

Geneva, Feb. 22.—Fire in this city last night completely destroyed the court house, entailing a fire loss of about $25,000, fully covered by insurance. Origin of the fire is unknown.

All of the county records were rescued before the conflagration had made much headway.

VISITORS ENTERTAINED

Mrs. Harry Martin and Mrs. J. E. Z. Riley of Ozark were visitors to the city yesterday. They came by special invitation to attend the Book Reception given by the City Improvement Club. While here they were the guests of Mrs. W. C. Fritter who entertained at an elegant dinner in their honor. Besides the hostess and her charming daughter, Mrs. Gladys Hicks, the dinner party was composed of Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Riley, Mesdames W. M. Hunter, M. A. Ellison and C. S. Tutwiler. After dinner all of the ladies attended the Book Reception.

At The Criterion

KALEM

"THE GIRL SPY AT VICKSBURG."

This picture is a feature civil war drama told from the southern point of view. The destruction of the Union ammunition wagons by the girl spy is very thrilling.

DIXIE will be rendered on the Graphophone during its exhibition, played by Arthur Pryor's band.

"THE SONG THAT REACHES HIS HEART."

A Western Canadian drama.

Musical program at night by Mr. and Mrs. Bailey.

RECEPTION OF CITY IMPROVEMENT CLUB

There has never been a more enjoyable occasion in Dothan than on yesterday afternoon when Mrs. Lillian Crawford threw open her beautiful home to the ladies of the City Improvement Club for their annual reception.

This spacious home, so well arranged for entertaining, was made spring like, and brightened by a profusion of cut flowers, palms, and ferns. On the lovely white marble mantle in the parlor a cut glass bowl held double hyacinths, and in the dining room in a tall crystal vase, white orchids and ferns reflected beauty in mirrors, on the buffet china cabinet and tables lovely roses that are the pride of Dothan added their beauty and fragrance to a scene already magnificent.

The officers of the City Improvement Club and the honored guests of the occasion, Mrs. Harry Martin and Mrs. J. E. Z. Riley, of Ozark, stood in the parlor and for over an hour a steady stream of Dothan's women passed through and were given a cordial hand clasp by the beloved president, Mrs. W. C. Fritter, who introduced them and made every one feel more than welcome.

It was the third anniversary of this progressive wide awake club and as it happened to be also the eleventh anniversary of the Public Library Association.

It was a fitting compliment that the City Improvement Club make their anniversary doubly pleasant by tendering the Lybrary Association a book reception, and very near one hundred volumes were donated to the library.

Mrs. Fritter's address was enjoyed as everything is that the admired president elects to say on any occasion. She was followed by Mrs. Ed Harmon, who gave a beautiful reading, "The Awakening of Spring." Mrs. Harmon has been endowed by nature with that rare gift, a musical speaking voice, and combined with culture and a beautiful personality. Her readings never fail to give pleasure.

The paper read by Mrs. Tutwiler on "The Needs of a Growing City," was an article that any woman would be proud to sign her name as its author, from the beginning to the end of her reading she held the closest attention of every one present, and was frequently applauded as she painted in beautiful language the Dothan that is to be.

At the close of the program Mrs. Ellison gave two readings, selections appreciated to the occasion, "A Tribute to Women's Clubs," and a plea for the play ground for the children. Mrs. Ellison's sweet personality always charms and did not fail on this occasion.

Rev. G. F. Bell and Rev. F. A. Rogers added much to the pleasure of the occasion by their remarks, which were full of praise and encouragement for both the City Improvement Club and the Library Association. Mr. Bell urged that we give Mr. Carnegie an opportunity to commemorate his name in Dothan by allowing him to erect a monument in the shape of a public library building and made the happy remark that he had already selected the lot for such a monument. This is the beginning of something real along this line I predict, and lastly we enjoyed the few modest remarks of Mrs. J. E. Z. Riley, of Ozark, as she told in her sweet, unassuming manner of the work that the City Improvement Club of Ozark was doing and what it hopes to do. Mrs. Riley is a woman of rare beauty and accomplishments, and she and Mrs. Harry Martin are two of Ozark's brightest and most valued club members, and their presence added much to the enjoyment of the third anniversary reception of the City Improvement Club.

Mrs. Crawford was assisted in entertaining by a number of her friends who served refreshments and otherwise assisted throughout the afternoon.

Delightful music from a string band was furnished for the occasion.

Hear Round's Ladies Orchestra at the Elite tonight.

Pretty music, good singing at the Elite theatre tonight by Round's All-Star Specialty Company. Come.

HAY CAPTURES A SLICK NEGRO

G. W. Crawford, deputy sheriff of Washington county, Georgia, left today for Sandersville with Theman Lewis, a negro wanted there for assault and attempt to murder and for bond jumping. Lewis was captured several days ago by Sheriff Hay, who received $50 reward for the job.

Lewis, it is alleged, committed the act two years ago and was let out on a $500 bond. Later he skipped his bondsmen and came to Alabama, where he has had a number of experiences with the officers. He was captured several times in this state, but has always managed to escape all his captors except Mr. Hay, who with the aid of a pair of handcuffs and a plowline, managed to hold him for the Georgia man.

One time at Geneva Lewis jumped from a two-story building and made his escape, and a few days ago he escaped the officers at Gordon after a long chase. He related to Mr. Hay his numerous escapes and told him that he intended to be missing from the Houston officials before he was claimed.

Mr. Hay caught him at Elanor, Fla., and after securely tying him, held him in Dothan for the arrival of Mr. Crawford. He will be tried in Sandersville in a few weeks.

REV. CAMPBELL TO LECTURE HERE FOR CHURCH

Rev. Sam H. Campbell, of Troy, will lecture at the Elite Theatre next Thursday night. His subject will be "The City of Jerusalem on the Pax-sion Play."

Mr. Campbell, in company with Mr. J. R. Keyton, made a tour of the Holy Land last year, and the lecture will be an interesting treat to his many Dothan friends, where he served as pastor for a number of years.

The proceeds of the lecture will go on a fund the Headland Avenue Baptist church is raising.

GO TO THE CRITERION today and hear DIXIE played on the Graphophone during the exhibition of a civil war picture. The Graphophone is the latest in graphophones and is sold by the Strickland Piano Co.

George H. Briggs, of Montgomery, was among the well known visitors to the city last night and this morning.

A. S. Davis arrived in the city today from Haleburg to spend a day or two.

CITY IMPROVEMENT CLUB

Ward two of the city improvement club will have abusiness meeting at 3:30, Saturday evening at Mrs. A. D. Whiddon's home on South Foster Street.

A large attendance is requested of those interested in this work.

J. CRAIG SMITH MAY GET PLUM

RUMOR SAYS HE MAY REMAIN AS HEAD OF STATE CONVICT DEPARTMENT

Montgomery, Ala., Feb. 23.—With only five days before the commission of J. Craig Smith, president of the state convict bureau, expires, Governor O'Neal, as far as can be learned, does not seem to have settled upon a man as yet for the job. It is one of the most important in the state, as it turns more cash into the state treasury every year than any other department of the commonwealth. Employees of the convict department are high up in the air as to who will pluck the plum and no one appears to have any information on the subject.

Within the past few days it has been rumored that J. Craig Smith is in the race for re-appointment. For quite a while it was stated that Mr. Smith would not be an applicant leaving the field to James G. Oakley, former sheriff of Bibb county, and J. Lee Long, legislative representative from Butler county, but reports have it now that Mr. Smith has some chance to be named again for the office. He has taken great pride in the office.

The treat of the season, Round's Ladies Orchestra at the Elite tonight.

The Coffee With a History

In 1815, after his glorious victory over the British at Chalmette, Andrew Jackson treated his troops to French Market Coffee at the famous old French Market in New Orleans. For over a hundred years back the finale of every Mardi-Gras Ball was to sip a cup of this famous coffee as a "night-cap." Then this famous beverage could be had nowhere else. History repeats itself. You may now serve it daily at your own table. For the old French Market blend is perpetuated by

It has been several days since the advertiser corrected the Colonel's grammar.

Leap years seem to fit by much more rapidly than they did when we were all younger.

Meantime, the blind fingers seem reason for hurrying the local option fixings through.

The average person eats too much because he is ashamed to treat himself to less grub.

The fanatics of the country manage to keep something on the stove stewing all the time.

The reason that miners couldn't sell the gold brick in New York the other day was because it was genuine.

This weather seems to have no other mission than enabling the farmer to save some pork that was left over.

A St. Louis judge sentenced a hobo to one bath a day for four days. That judge knew how to meet out a just punishment.

The strangest thing in the world is the thing a man hands you some times when he asks you to listen to reason and common sense.

* We get no report from the field agents working for the forty-five per cent of the qualified electors to come across on the petition with their John Hancock.

There is a crook somewhere in the straightest of roads, and the automobile driver ought to keep his eyes well ahead for the crooked places.

"If this was a liquor or no liquor fight, it would be a different thing, but it isn't." That was heard often by men who pretended to be sincere during the amendment campaign. Now they are of the opinion that one cannot be a good democrat unless he stands for whiskey.

Henry B. Gray thinks that the dispensary bill is not liberal enough by the cities. He doesn't like the idea of the city or town in which the dispensaries are, to get only 30 per cent of the profits. He thinks that they ought to get 50 per cent the state 20 and the county 30.

If you want to find out how the you know of our language, get to giving the definition of the words. A boy's spelling, who may be required to give them every day at school. You may know how to use the words, you have a clear understanding of the meaning, but many of them would be troublesome to explain.

Since Senator Johnson got off that glibly on Lottimer prominent Alabamians are thinking over the capable list to select a probable successor when the time comes. We nearly all remember the homely advice received when boys about always trying to keep in good company, and saying nothing at all when we couldn't say something good about one. Senator Johnson seems to have forgotten both of these rules.

At unguarded moments men make statements, or get off some conversation that they fancy is statements and it makes them turn pale around the gills when their language is quoted on them at an unexpected time in the future. That is one of the pleasures and compensations of a newspaper man, of keeping forever the sayings of men who are liable to be in the public eye. They come in useful some times.

We never thought that the Canadians would rise up so quick about a proposition of annexing them. We knew they couldn't see a joke, even if it wore a red tie, bull-hat and guinea hen breeches and high heel shoes, but we were like Champ Clark. We had an idea that in time the United States would take Canada over, merely as a favor. If they don't want to come and join us, then we don't care. We will probably take Mexico instead.

There was a delegation through here from Hartford yesterday going to Montgomery to see if they couldn't induce the legislature to give them a bill that would allow the Geneva court house moved to Hartford, instead of Geneva, as long as the building has been burned and will have to be rebuilt anyway. It is not likely that they will meet with much favor, as Mr. Mulvey is a resident of Geneva, still you can never tell what will come from the legislature.

Wonder what the Houston Post has to say to the statement from the New York World, that a Texas ranch man has written Gov. Dix, of New York to look around for a wife for him. The Texan wants a woman of classical proportions, well educated and with $15,000 of her own. The World is of the opinion that if there are any New York girls of that description, counting the money that they need not go as far as Texas looking for a man. The Post would have you believe that plenty women filling this bill are walking the streets of Houston every day.

WELL KNOWN

The dispatches tell us that Hon. Frank Smith may get the plum of president of the board of convict inspectors. He has been holding right along under all administrations and his being a son-in-law of ex Governor Comer, one might expect that he would not have stood much of a show with Governor O'Neal.

The name of Crag Smith is not unfamiliar with the people of Alabama for most of the voters of the state have seen his name on nearly every ticket for twenty-five years, for first one thing and then another. There are some people who believe that he has run for something every time the gap was let down, since he has been old enough. This is probably an error. We have only been voting about nineteen years, and we found his name on the first ticket, if we remember correctly.

FINIS

To The Gadsden Times-News and Dothan Eagle, greetings. The Advertiser is 21 years old, pays its poll tax and talks as loud as it pleases. We propose that the Colonel "will go to Reno." You insist that the Colonel is right and that he "will come to Reno." We don't care how he gets there just so he "goes." If you want to make it a personal matter just "come" to Montgomery, and we will "go" with you to the Capitol and hear some sweet-lined oratory on the revenue bill—Advertiser.

The Advertiser has at last come to the point and excuses the error of which we convicted it on the grounds of age and decrepitude.

We sympathize with our senile friends and would suggest the infusion of some young blood into the staff, so that when the Advertiser "talks as loud as it pleases," it will be able to say something.

CONSISTENCY.

The legislature of Alabama the other day passed a bill allowing the railroads to issue free passes to the confederate soldiers. The same body turned down a bill that gave the right to railroads to make advertising contracts with newspapers, on an exchange basis. That is, the papers were to carry advertising for the railroads in exchange for the passes or passes.

It felt like to pass the editor's bill and it would break down the anti-pass laws in Alabama, but the same body didn't see any harm in giving the right to the railroads to issue free transportation to another class of people.

The only opposition offered to the confederate soldiers' bill was the fact that per chance some of the old soldiers might be editors of newspapers. That brought out some discussion.

The difference is, the editors would be paying for their passes in real service—the only thing they have to sell—publicity, while nothing is expected at all from the old soldier in return for the pass.

This looks more like button-headed consistency than it does an effort on the part of the law makers to protect the people of Alabama from what they feel is a great danger, danger that of allowing the editors to trade their space in any manner they see fit, so long as it doesn't affect any one else's interest.

A NEWS ITEM.

We want to see a real live news item. We would suggest the kind of a news item that would be read with great interest by the American newspaper reader.

Take for instance, marriage and matches. We would suggest that the papers could make a hit by discovering a chunk of nobility from across the water, who was worth a good many millions in his own right,

Makes the most nutritious food and the most dainty and delicious.

and who was really earning some money every year. We want to see the thing played up, like Laura Jean Libby could. Let the fellow come across looking for a wife, who might be a land renter's daughter, or a section hand's daughter, who was good, and nice, but who had no money and who had never traveled abroad.

What a hit such a story would make. We could see the New York papers playing up a heading and writing a lead a yard long.

That would be purely fiction, of course, but at the same time highly entertaining reading matter.

Of all the lords who have weather-boarded their impoverished and obsolete titles with American dollars, we have never yet heard of one who felt in love, at first sight, with a girl whose bank roll he knew not of.

It is generally known that these financial stunts are pulled off through agents whose duty it is to pick out the rich girl before the cuss leaves home.

His work is cut out for him. The ship is carefully picked for him to all on and the society departments of the papers are carefully instructed when to look for his nibbles.

Here in America it is not uncommon for a sensible millionaire to fall in love and marry some young woman who has nothing in the world but a good name and a pleasant face. That is rather a common thing, but you never hear of nobility coming that near of having to work for a living.

A SPLENDID TONIC

Cora Ky.—Mrs. Iva Moore, of this place says, "I was so weak I could hardly walk. I tried Cardui, and was greatly relieved. It is a splendid tonic. I have recommended Cardui to many friends, who tried it with good results." Testimony like this comes unsolicited, from thousands of earnest women, who have been benefited by the timely use of that successful tonic medicine, Cardui. Purely vegetable, mild, but reliable, Cardui will merit its high place in the esteem of those who have tried it. It relieves women's pains, and strengthens weak women. It is certainly worth a trial. Your druggist sells Cardui.

Talk on Good Guano By People Who Use Dothan Guano Co. Goods.

Cottonwood, Ala., Route 2.
February 14, 1911.
Mr. E. R. Malone, President,
Dothan, Ala.

Dear Sir:—As you know, I have used your fertilizers for a good many years. Last year I quit, but I am going to buy your guano. I could easily see the difference between your goods and others.

Yours truly,
J. R. Deal.

Crosby, Ala., Jan. 12, 1911.
The Dothan Guano Company,
Dothan, Ala.

Gentlemen:—I cultivated last year two acres of land and gathered 130 bushels of corn from same. I used three sacks of Grange Mixture on these two acres and no other fertilizer. I regard this brand well suited to the land of this section.

Yours truly,
Z. Williams.

Mr. E. R. Malone, President,
Dothan Guano Company,
Dothan, Ala.

Dear Sir:—I have been using Grange Mixture ever since you have been making it. I quit a year or two but went back to it. Last year I put nine bags on five acres and got 2070 lbs. of cotton off of that five acres. I put seven sacks of Grange Mixture on six acres of corn and I got forty-five bushels to the acre.

Yours truly,
J. W. Durham.

Dothan Guano Co., Dothan, Ala.
Dear Sir:—I have used your guano nearly every year since you have mixed guano. I am well pleased. I made on two acres last year with your guano 2,386 pounds of seed cotton.
J. T. Bradshaw.
